43 Tulip Street Hyams Beach NSW

4 2 2

43 Tulip is located on the uphill side of Tulip Street, giving it an elevated position that backs onto the Jervis Bay National Park. The existing house is tucked into the natural slope of the ground and has lovely gardens and shrubbery at the front - giving it a great sense of privacy. There are also lovely district and water views from the front full width deck.

The house is stylish, spacious, relaxing, well designed and perfect as a beach house or permanent residence. There is also potential to go up one level and / or to extend further up the slope - to take in even more views of Jervis Bay. This all subject to further investigation and Council approval.

The house is an easy walk to the middle beach at Hyams and the Hyams Beach Cafe. Beautiful Chinamans and
